Say YES! To Experience The World

For almost a decade, Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study (YES) students from countries with significant Muslim populations have been attending high school and living with host families in the United States. Now, through the Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study (YES) Abroad program, American high school students and recent graduates have an opportunity to live and study abroad in some of these countries. The YES Abroad program, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, offers full scholarships for up to one academic year to study abroad in select countries. Apply online today at www.yesprograms.org and say "YES" for the experience of a lifetime.

Building a global community requires engagement at all levels of society. Apply now for the Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study Abroad scholarship and take the first step toward enriching your understanding of the world. By participating in YES Abroad, you will develop leadership skills and deepen your knowledge of what is required to build a global community of shared interests and values. You will gain valuable insight into what is needed to promote the development of respectful and enduring relationships between Americans and citizens of other countries. Here is your opportunity to learn from another culture and gain a new perspective on American culture.

Authorized by the U.S. Congress in the aftermath of September 11th, the Kennedy-Lugar YES and YES Abroad programs support high school student exchanges to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and people of countries with significant Muslim populations.
